Where symbols appear in pairs, the one to the right represents a voiced consonant. Shaded areas denote articulations judged impossible.

Table 2: List of 1 syllable animals plualized ending

frog z	cow z	fly z
rat s	$\mathrm{bird}\ \mathbf{z}$	wasp s
$\log z$	goat s	bee z
cat s	hen \mathbf{z}	ape s
bat s	lion \mathbf{z}	ant s
pig z	bug z	crow z
whale z		hawk s
snake s	ram z	sloth s
bear z	$\mathrm{seal}\ \mathbf{z}$	snail \mathbf{z}

The key is if your vocal cords (aka vocal folds) vibrate on the last sound of the word. If it vibrates, it will sound like a 'z,' if it doesn't, it will sound like an 's'.

The only exception to this rule is if the last sound is

- sh (like wish)
- ss (like hiss)
- zz (like fuzz)
- ge/je (like fudge)

which would end in 'iz'.

Table 3: List of 1 syllable past-tense ending
